

Something Dada has been pulling the blankets out of storage, lately, and digging the sweaters out from behind the various holiday decorations and sporting equipment in the crawl space as it becomes exponentially chillier. But apparently, we're not even as hard core as some when it comes to insulating ourselves for the brisk months to come. It seems that in Australia and New Zealand, tons of crazy blokes are celebrating "Movember" by sporting jaunty mustaches (Movember being a portmanteau of 'moustache' and 'November.')

While it pains us to no end that we aren't in the outback, watching fellas rassel some crocs while wearing stylish fu man chu's, we at Dada are happy to do our part in the movement. If you have a mustache, we'll be pleased to offer you $1 off your ticket at the door to either of our performances this Saturday.

Can't grow a stache? Or maybe you're a sheila? Don't worry, all Dada shows some equipped with so much laughter that you'll find yourself as warm as though you'd downed a couple stubbies of Foster.

Dada. Australian for awesome.

Something Dada strongly suggests not bringing children under 13 to our shows. We generally operate at a PG-13 level, in terms of language and content, but we can not guarantee what suggestions will be given, or what direction the show will take (it is improv, after all). If you have any questions or concerns, please e-mail us at info@somethingdada.com or call us at 216.696.4242.
