

Something Dada is incredulous. Although it still feels like summer outside, we've seen the first tell-tale signs of fall approaching. Namely, a few leaves up and started to change, apparently over night. Like "Whoops, it's September! Better give up and turn brown and fall to the ground and become all crackly and perfect for piling and then jumping."

Not that we don't enjoy autumn as much as the next group of folks. But seriously, it's September already?! Where did the summer go? Who authorized this?

Come join us in our righteous indignation, this weekend on Friday or Saturday. The comedy is so hot, you'll think summer is lasting forever... or that the inconvenient truth just got truthier, whichever. Point is, you're sure to have a great time!
